

COUNCIL COLUMN – WEDNESDAY 18 NOVEMBER 2020
COMMUNITY CONSULTATION - SWIFT PARK TRANGIE

Council invites residents to vote for their preferred concept of playground equipment that is set to be upgraded at Trangie's Swift Park. Voting is strictly limited to Narromine Shire residents. Further Information and concept designs are available on Council's website www.narromine.nsw.gov.au/council/community-consultation. Be quick as voting will close at midnight Sunday 29 November 2020.

ROAD SAFETY WEEK 15 – 22 NOVEMBER 2020

Road Safety Week has commenced and Council strongly reminds all road users to be cautious when driving especially with the number of heavy vehicles on the roads over harvest.

Oversize vehicles have blind spots and may not see other vehicles on the road, take extra care when overtaking as many have trailers attached and can be longer than expected. Heavy Vehicles may move slowly please be patient and share the road safely.

Electronic message boards have been installed at locations around the region's road networks about the harvest traffic with simple tips and are a timely reminder to us all.
